Megan Wirtz

2025 was a successful year for the CWCOG Mobility Management program! We held 32% more trainings than last year, delivered 58% more Youth on the Go Activity Books into the community than last year, had a 47% increase in CWCOG Trip Assistant website visits than last year, and attended 155 Transportation meetings in 2025. Thank you to all that help promote this great program.

I hope to see many of you at the Community Transportation Association of the Northwest (CTANW) Summit this May in Leavenworth, WA.

The CWCOG HSTP Transportation Public Survey is live until April 3, 2026. Learn more about the plan on our CWCOG website.

TRANSPORTATION SPOTLIGHT

CWCOG Grant Writing Workshops

This January, CWCOG, Wahkiakum and Longview Kelso Chamber of Commerce hosted two successful Grant Writing Workshops with 50 attendees. This was the third year, and we are now hearing success stories of grants approved from previous class attendees. The class was led by CWCOG Monica Seidl, Project Specialist, Economic and Community Development, and Stacey Lane, Community Resource Coordinator, and Dian Cooper, Consultant/Project development/Grant Writing presented. Our virtual Transportation groups that meet quarterly will also be hosting a Grant Writing expert this year. If you would like more information, please reach out to us. To learn more please visit our CWCOG website.

Partnering with Senior Centers

This past year, CWCOG partnered with Lewis County Transit by attending multiple Senior Resource Fairs in Winlock, Pe Ell, and Morton, WA. The Resource Fairs were organized by Timber River Connections Lewis County Seniors. The seniors appreciated the one-on-one interaction and training on how to use the fixed route and Dial-A-Ride service. In Winlock, there were 37 active seniors that attended and five other vendors. There are six senior centers in Lewis County. Consider partnering with your local senior centers in your community for a Lunch and Learn session or participate in a Resource Fair. Reach out to us if you would like to know more.

Partnering with High Schools

This October, CWCOG Mobility Program, CWCOG Target Zero Program, and Camille Goldsmith, Transportation Coordinator for Wahkiakum on the Move attended the Wahkiakum High School Wellness Fair. Students got to participate in engaging activities with about 15 vendors and learn about how to ride Wahkiakum on the Move. In Cowlitz County, the Longview Chamber of Commerce hosts a Career Expo that brings about 40 vendors and 800 high school students together at the Lower Columbia College in Longview, WA. Reach out to us to learn more about partnering with students, high schools, and your chamber in your community.

Transit Employee Spotlight

Josh Nylander was hired as Executive Director of Lewis County Transit. Josh has 30 years of local government experience with the last 14 at Whatcom Transportation Authority in Bellingham Washington. Welcome Josh! His work at Whatcom Transportation Authority impacted nearly every department of transit operations, from service planning and budgeting to microtransit implementation, zero emissions transition, strategic planning, and large-scale procurements. Welcome Josh! Lewis County Transit has multiple projects going on. One of those current efforts involves Lewis County Transit's zero-emissions efforts and the hydrogen fueling station in the Port of Chehalis. Read more in this article here.
